The ancient Chinese were so fearful of their enemies on the north that they built the Great Wall of China, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. It was so high they knew no one could climb over it and so thick that nothing could break it down. Then they settled back to enjoy their security.

But during the first one hundred years of the wall's existence, China was invaded three times. Not once did the enemy break down the wall or climb over its top. Each time they bribed a gatekeeper and marched right through the gates. According to the historians, the Chinese were so busy relying on the walls of stone that they forgot to teach integrity to their children.

Let us never forget, not only to model but to teach integrity to others.

“Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?” Daniel answered, “O king, live forever! My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, O king.” Daniel 6:21-22

Responsive Scripture Selections from Psalm 24

Leader: The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof;

All: The world and they that dwell therein.

Leader: For He hath founded it upon the seas and established it upon the floods.

All: Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Who shall stand in His holy place?

Leader: He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

All: He shall receive the blessing of the Lord, and righteousness from the God of His salvation.

Leader: Lift up your heads, oh ye gates; be lifted up ye everlasting doors. and the King of Glory shall come in!

All: Who is this King of Glory?

Leader: The Lord strong and mighty! The Lord mighty in battle!

All: Lift up your heads, oh ye gates! And the King of Glory shall come in!

Leader: Who is this King of Glory?

All: The Lord of hosts, He is the King of Glory!

A young Hindu girl brought up in a strict Hindu family came to know a group of Christians. Someone asked her one day what she thought a Christian was. She thought for a few moments and replied, "Well as far as I can see, a Christian is somebody who is different from everybody else."
